

President, the contractor will execute a mutchalika on a stamp paper for the performance of the contract. The amount in deposit will, if the conditions of the contract are complied with, be credited towards the instalments due for the last two months of the contract.

6. If the deposit is not made immediately after the close of the sale, the contract will be resold at the risk of the first purchaser. If the default is made in the payment of the instalments, interest at one pie rupee per month will be levied on the amount due from the day next to the date on which it was due till the date of payment, and the unexpired portion of the contract will also be liable to be sold again at the discretion of the President, and the deficit, if any, will be recovered from the first contractor, who shall not be entitled to any profits.

7. No remission or abatement of the contract amount or compensation shall on any account whatever be claimable by the contractor.

8. The contractor is also bound to keep an account showing in detail the weekly collection, and it shall be open to inspection by the taluk and district authorities.

9. In the event of breach of any of the above rules on the part of the contractor or his servants, the contract will be liable to cancellation.
